In early September, as everyone in the area anxiously watched for Hurricane Irma's projected path in Florida, Realtor Janice Busovne was taking action. Busovne and her husband, Bernie, spent an entire day securing all of her listed properties prior to the storm's landfall. The Busovnes secured listed vacant and staged properties by taking down 'For Sale' signs, moving outdoor furniture, and any other wind hazards. Busovne then called all of her occupied listings offering tips on securing those own properties.

Although the massive storm bypassed Florida's Panhandle, Busovne is not sorry that she spent so much time preparing. "It is a huge job to tackle but a necessary one. It is part of my job as a Realtor." The hurricane season is not over until November 30. If you need information on how to secure your property for a hurricane, call or email Realtor Janice Busovne for expert advice.

Spicy Molasses Cookies by Ree I The Pioneer Woman

- 1 cup Sugar
- 3/4 cups Crisco (vegetable Shortening) 1/4 cup Molasses
- 1 whole Egg
- 2 cups Flour
- 2-1/2 teaspoons Baking Soda
- 1 teaspoon Cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon Ground Ginger
- 1/2 teaspoon Ground Cloves
- 1/4 teaspoon Ground Cardamom
- 1/4 teaspoon Salt

Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Mix sugar, shortening, molasses, and egg together until well combined. Dump in dry ingredients, stirring dry ingredients together lightly. Mix together until dough is combined.

In your hands roll dough into walnut-sized balls, then generously coat each ball with sugar. Place balls on a baking sheet and bake for 9 to 11 minutes, allowing to bake for about a minute after cookies begin to crack.

Remove cookies from baking sheet and allow to cool...though these are delicious while still warm.

Fun variation: drizzle melted white chocolate in decorative stripes over the top of each cookie. Allow to harden before serving. Or: dip half of each cookie in melted white chocolate. Yum.

Another fun variation: make sandwiches using two cookies and a scoop of cinnamon ice cream. Yikes.

Another really fun variation: eat all the cookies yourself, then hide all the evidence.
