

June means school is out for the summer. It also means celebrations like Father's Day, respecting our flag on Flag Day and remembering D-Day. But summer also can signal change for many people. That change could mean downsizing or perhaps finding a larger home when the family expands or needs to live closer to schools. Whenever there is change, there can be anxiety about how and what those changes will look like in the future. Don't rely simply on instinct for help. Call a Realtor like Janice Busovne who can calm those real estate woes and make life easier. And that is definitely cause for celebration!

What Does The "D" In D-Day Stand for?

It does not stand for anything. The 'D' is derived from the word 'day'. 'D-Day' means the day on which a military operation begins. The term 'D-Day' has been used for many different operations, but it is now generally only used to refer to the Allied landings in Normandy on 6 June 1944.

FLAG DAY JUNE 14TH

WHY DO WE CELEBRATE?

The reason we celebrate Flag Day is simple- it's the day that marks the adoption of the flag of the United States which happened on June 14, 1777, thanks to a resolution of the Second Continental Congress. Flag Day is also a special day for the United States Army because it's the day they celebrate their birthday.

WHAT DO THE COLORS MEAN?

"The colors of the pales (the vertical stripes) are those used in the flag of the United States of America; White signifies purity and innocence, Red, hardiness & valour, and Blue, the color of the Chief (the broad band above the stripes) signifies vigilance, perseverance & justice."
