Spring 2020: A Time Never To Be Forgotten

Remember, I am your Niceville Home Connection for information and resources.

"Homeland Security has declared that the real estate industry is an essential business. In northwest Florida, realtors continue to list properties, show properties, and sell properties.

My main goal while working with you in the current COVID-19 environment is to keep you healthy. I have implemented the following changes in my daily work to protect your health:

- Use phone, email, FACETIME, etc. to discuss real estate issues rather than in-person meetings
- Many of my associates (lenders, title companies, etc.) can do the same
- do a virtual showing for you with a phone or tablet
- minimize physical contact with clients with a medical condition and/or are over 60 years of age
- use social distancing, hand sanitizer, gloves and masks as needed
- I open all doors (wearing gloves) when showing a house and ask you not to touch anything
