

OUR FLAG

The flag of the United States is more than three colors on fabric. It makes a bold statement every time it is flown. And that is why, in 1916, President Woodrow Wilson decreed that June 14 be established as a day to honor and celebrate the flag.

The flag itself is filled with history, symbolism and proper etiquette on how it should be displayed. All 50 states are represented by white stars on a blue background which symbolizes vigilance, perseverance and justice. The stripes represent the original 13 colonies with red used to show hardiness and valor and white to display purity and innocence.

Today, the flag is viewed as a true symbol of American liberty, freedom, prosperity and patriotism. And patriotism is synonymous with Realtor Janice Busovne. Not only does she proudly fly the flag at her own home, she gifts her buyers that close on a home with the flag program offered by the Kiwanis Club. And then there is her grandson... who was dressed in red, white and blue for Memorial Day.

Happy Fathers Day!
