LIVE THE DREAM LIFE ON THE EMERALD COAST!

Where would you rather live? Big city or small town? If the price of a home were exactly the same everywhere in the country, where would you go? While the price might be the same, the amenities might differ. You might have a mountain view but a tiny home. You might have a lot of acreage and a larger home. Or a waterfront property in Florida and a home that is just right for your family. We all know that the price of homes around the country differ due to a lot of factors. Understanding exactly what those factors are is a pretty big job. That's where Realtor Janice Busovne comes in. She can help you sort out why home prices aren't the same everywhere and show you homes that this area of northwest Florida has to offer that fit your budget, and lifestyle.
